SAMOA DID IT AGAIN - UNDEFEATED FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS

The strong team of Samoa won for the second time in a row the 2021 Premiers League Tournament. The team lead by Jerry Wallwork was far too strong for the rest. Throughout the year they produced some truly world class performances.

In second place was Australia, who lost only one round for the year. They produced some excellent performances throughout the tournament.

In third place was New Zealand. They produced consistent performances throughout but were unlikely with the lockdowns as their lifters did not have access to their gymnasiums and clubs.

In fourth position was Papua New Guinea. PNG throughout the tournament entered quite a number of young lifters. This gave them the opportunity to compete international.

Nauru and Solomon Islands scored the same points with Nauru having a better aggregate score and thereby finishing fifth overall with the Solomon Islands sixth overall.

In seventh position was Fiji. This last round crucial to them in beating Kiribati by 90kg to move ahead.

Kiribati came eighth, missing one round during the tournament.

In the 7th and final round Samoa defeated New Zealand by 168kg

Australia defeated Papua New Guinea by 555kg,

Fiji defeated Kiribati by 95kg.

Nauru defeated Solomon Islands by 283kg.
